KATHRYN A. JERKOVICH

LAND USE PLANNING MANAGER

Kathryn has more than ten years experience working in architecture, planning and site development. Prior to joining BCRA in 1999, Kathryn owned and operated a land development company specializing in small commercial and residential projects. Her experience involved managing day-to-day business operations, maintaining a client base and project management. At BCRA, Kathryn works as part of an overall team on due diligence, jurisdictional negotiations, zoning code compliance, and permit coordination, processing and tracking. Additionally, Kathryn makes public presentations to various deciding bodies, such as planning commissions, city councils and hearing examiners. Her high level of customer service has established enduring relationships with jurisdictions, as well as many repeat clients for BCRA.
