To Whom This May Concern.

I do not live in Yelm. I live in Rainier and I own my own property. I am very aware of the amount of money I spent to drop a well for my home. I also understand what it takes for upkeep.

I personally think this matter is of public opinion. I spent my money for my well, and I am responsible for my well, therefore, in my opinion , what you are doing is potentially taking from me.

Put it to those who matter, not you developers. Put it to those who are going to eventually have to pay for what it is you do.

Sincerely,
KM
